

STUDY ABROAD IN FRANCE

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

CURRICULUM PLANNING FOR FRANCE

Semester in France with internship – 15 credits

Students Typically Take:

1. Internship
2. 1 major/minor course
3. French language*

Select two of the following:

- HC2L
- Minor course
- VPCH/VPC2
- NSCR
- General Elective

Semester in France w/ out internship – 15 credits

Students Typically Take:

1. 1 major course
2. French language*
3. HC2L

Select two of the following:

- RSCR
- Major course
- Minor course
- VPCH/VPC2
- NSCR
- General Elective

ACADEMIC CONSIDERATIONS

*Please note, should students need to take beginner or intermediate French, please note these courses are taught in sequence totaling 6 credits. In addition to the French course, students will take 3 addition courses (not 4) for a total of 15 credits.

Academic Considerations for Class of 2022

- US Diversity may not be taken abroad
- Do not plan on taking your World Diversity Abroad
- HI, PH, RS 101 cannot be taken abroad

Academic Considerations for Class of 2023

- Tier 1 Core may not be taken abroad
- Signature Elements may not be taken abroad

GREAT FOR THE FOLLOWING MAJORS

Art History*

Studio Art*

Communications

Economics

French

Politics

International Studies

See back for customized Studio Art and Art History track*

STUDIO ART – FALL SEMESTER

- Multimedia and Contemporary Studio Practice
- Drawing
- Art Criticism and Aesthetics
- Muslim Presence in Europe
- French Language

Art Criticism and Aesthetics - Includes a five day excursion to Giverny to study Monet's development as well as on-site drawing and painting in his gardens along with another five-day museum field study to Paris.

French 101/102 - This French course is especially conceived for our art majors and much of the language learning uses art props and ideas to create conversation and language learning.

ART HISTORY – SPRING SEMESTER

- Matisse Picasso and the Mediterranean Basin
- Art Criticism and Aesthetics
- Studio Art
- Crossroads in European Art
- French Language

Art Criticism and Aesthetics - This course includes a 9 day field study to Venice.